

VOLUNTEERING 101 CLASS

How to find the perfect volunteer opportunity for you

Are you interested in volunteering but don't know where to begin? Volunteering 101 will provide guidance on matching your interests to a volunteer service opportunity that's right for you.

Davis RSVP will present this Volunteering 101 session at several Davis County Libraries during January, February and March. This short 45 minute course will explore:

- How to find the right service opportunity to match your skills, available time and passions
- How volunteering benefits both the volunteer & the recipient
- How to get started in volunteer service, whether for a non-profit or government agency

There is no charge to participate.
